

Sinclair
Broadcasting recent decision to force
their stations to run a clearly
partisan anti-Kerry
"documentary" so
close to the election is not in the public interest.

It blurs the line
between news and
partisan politics
that is dangerous to the public good and
is another
disgusting example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

This decision flies
in the face of fair
play and threatens
our democracy.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
